NEWS AND EVENTS

April 10 Battalion 9 Training		Firefighters participated in a training session at an abandoned house in Santa Ana. Multiple companies were able to train on ventilation practices, firefighter rescues and salvage operations.
April 20 Sandpointe Neighborhood Association Meeting	Community Education Specialist Martha Espiritu participated in the neighborhood association meeting and discussed fireworks safety, grilling safety, smoke and carbon monoxide alarms as well as provided information on drowning prevention. She answered questions from the residents pertaining to electrical wiring, energy efficient lightbulbs and lithium batteries.
April 28 Home Owner Association (HOA) Training	Administrative Fire Captain Stephen Horner conducted a HOA Training for the apartment managers in the City of Santa Ana. The training included fire safety topics as well as the overall role and responsibilities of the Orange County Fire Authority.

SIGNIFICANT INCIDENTS

April 21 Suspicious Package

An unattended suitcase was left in the parking lot of the Santa Ana Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). California Highway Patrol (CHP), Orange County Sheriff's Department (OCSD), Santa Ana Police Department (SAPD), and Orange County Fire Authority (OCFA) cordoned off the area while the OCSD Bomb Squad used the robot to identify the contents of the suitcase. The contents were deemed safe by Bomb Squad technicians.
