NEWS AND EVENTS

May Drowning Prevention Media Campaign	This month OCFA will be focusing on drowning prevention outreach. This includes the Orange County Task Force on Drowning Prevention’s media campaign, as well as more than 35 OCFA drowning prevention events scheduled through July.
New Chaplain		Please join us in welcoming Chaplain Jim Gwaltney to the City of Santa Ana. Chaplain Jim Gwaltney has been an ordained pastor for 11 years in Irvine. Jim is married and has four daughters between the ages of 6 and 13 years old. Jim comes with 7 years of law enforcement chaplain experience and looks forward to serving the department and the community. Jim can be reached via email at jimgwaltney@ocfa.org.
May 21 Smoke Alarm Installation Event	OCFA, the American Red Cross, and local volunteers supported the Love Santa Ana Initiative by installing 137 smoke alarms in 43 homes near Madison Elementary. Residents also received fire safety, emergency evacuation, and drowning prevention information.
New Administrative Assistant	Please join us in welcoming Division 6 Administrative Assistant Jocelyn Casillas to the City of Santa Ana. Jocelyn comes to us with previous experience in the Department of Homeland Security and Transportation Logistics. Jocelyn graduated from California State University, Long Beach (CSULB), where she obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. Jocelyn is also fluent in Spanish, which will be a significant asset to the community. Jocelyn can be reached via telephone (714) 567-3236 or email jocelyncasillas@ocfa.org.
May 26 CERT Program	A Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training program was held at Centennial Park to prepare individuals to assist their community following a disaster when professional responders are not immediately available to help. The program had 21 graduates from CERT Class #5. This program is offered at no cost and the next training will be held in July. For additional details, contact Steve Rhyner via telephone (714) 647-5315 or email srhyner@santa-ana.org.
